

Language: English

You will be taken to the local doctor by the rescue services. The doctor will decide how you will be treated. The next course of action will be explained to you.

The rescue services will transport you directly to the nearest hospital. Here you will be investigated in detail and the next course of action established.

Given the nature of your injury, the use of an emergency helicopter is required. The emergency doctor from the helicopter will treat you on-site and then you will be flown to the nearest hospital.

Your injury needs to be treated by a doctor. Rescue services are required to transport you to the doctor. If you wish to visit a doctor independently, you are required to sign a declaration (Against Medical Advice Form).

Your injury needs to be treated by a doctor. If you do not wish to receive any further treatment, you are required to sign a declaration (Against Medical Advice Form).

If you refuse treatment or transportation by the piste rescue services, you are required to sign a declaration (Against Medical Advice Form).

We require some further details from you for our operating protocol. Please enter the required data provided into the protocol.

Cost of use

The costs for use of the piste rescue services total

Euros:

We request that you pay this sum directly to us now. You can make the payment using a credit or debit card. After making the payment, you will receive a confirmation which you can submit to your insurance company back home to request a refund. If you are unable to pay on-site, we will send an invoice to your home.

Language: English

The injured party will now be transported by the rescue services to the local doctor. The doctor will then decide on a further course of treatment for the casualty. The next course of action will be explained to you.

The rescue services will transport the casualty directly to the nearest hospital. Here the casualty will be investigated in detail and the next course of action established.

Given the nature of the injury, the use of an emergency helicopter is required. The emergency doctor from the helicopter will treat the casualty on-site and then they will be flown to the nearest hospital.

The injury needs to be treated by a doctor. Rescue services are required to transport the casualty to the doctor. If the casualty wishes to visit a doctor independently, they or a relative are required to sign a declaration (Against Medical Advice Form).

The injury needs to be treated by a doctor. If the casualty does not wish to receive any further treatment, they or a relative are required to sign a declaration (Against Medical Advice Form).

If the casualty refuses treatment or transportation by the piste rescue services, they or a relative are required to sign a declaration (Against Medical Advice Form).

We require some further details from the injured party for our operating protocol. Please enter the required data provided into the protocol.

Cost of use

The costs for use of the piste rescue services total

Euros:

We request that you pay this sum directly to us now. You can make the payment using a credit or debit card. After making the payment, you will receive a confirmation which you can submit to your insurance company back home to request a refund. If you are unable to pay on-site, we will send an invoice to your home.